Rules :

1. Match Duration

- The team consists of 4 players.
- One round consists of a maximum of three matches. Two players will play singles and two players will play one doubles. The team winning two matches will qualify for the next round.
- Each match consists of three game which will be played to 21 points, with a player or team required to win by a minimum margin of 2 points.
- In the event of a score reaching 29-29, the first player or team to reach 30 points wins the game.
- Players switch sides after each game. If a match enters a deciding game (third game), players must also switch sides when a player or team reaches 11 points.

2. Scoring System

- Badminton follows the rally scoring system, meaning a point is awarded to the winner of each rally, regardless of which side served.
- If the serving side wins the rally, they will continue serving. If the receiving side wins, they gain the serve and score a point.

3. Service Rules

- The shuttlecock must be struck below the waist level during service.
- The racket head must remain below the server's wrist at the moment of shuttlecock contact.
- The shuttlecock must be served diagonally to the opponent's correct service court, as determined by the server's score.
- In doubles, the server must serve from the designated service court according to the score. If the score is even, the server serves from the right service court; if odd, from the left.

4. Gameplay Regulations

- Players are required to return the shuttlecock before it touches the ground.
- The shuttlecock must land within the court boundaries for it to be considered “in play.” Shots landing outside the boundaries result in a fault.
- If the shuttlecock touches the net but lands within the opponent’s court, play continues.

5. Faults and Violations

- A fault occurs when the shuttlecock lands outside the designated court boundaries.
- A fault is committed if a player touches the net with their racket or body during play.
- A player commits a fault if they obstruct or distract their opponent during the rally.
- If the server misses the shuttlecock during their attempt to serve, it is considered a fault.

6. Player Conduct and Fair Play

- Players must show respect to the referee, umpire, and opponents at all times.
- Deliberate delays or other forms of unsportsmanlike behavior may result in a warning or penalty.
- Players must not engage in excessive arguments or protests regarding umpire decisions. The umpire’s decision is final.

7. Winning the Match

- The player or team that wins two out of three games wins the match.
- In the event of repeated rule violations by a player, the referee may award the victory to the opponent.

All the matches will be on Knockout basis. FINAL DECISION will be taken by the Officials. By adhering to these official rules, players and officials contribute to a fair, competitive, and enjoyable badminton match.

CONCLUSION

As we come to the end of the Athleon Fest Rules and Regulations book, we want to reiterate the importance of maintaining the spirit of sportsmanship, respect, and fair play throughout the event. By adhering to these guidelines, we ensure a positive and enjoyable experience for everyone involved — from competitors to volunteers to spectators. The RGNAU'S Fest is an opportunity to celebrate not just individual achievements, but also the strength of our community. It is about coming together, pushing your limits, supporting one another, and creating memories that will last far beyond the event itself. Whether you take home a trophy or simply enjoy the camaraderie of the games, every participant plays a vital role in making this event special. We encourage you to approach every event with enthusiasm, respect for others, and a commitment to excellence. Remember that the true essence of the Athleon Fest lies in participation, unity, and the joy of friendly competition. Let's embrace the opportunity to grow, learn, and have fun together. Thank you for your commitment to the event, and we wish you the best of luck as you participate in this exciting celebration of athleticism, school spirit, and community. May the ATHLEON FEST be an unforgettable experience for you all. Enjoy, compete fairly, and most importantly, have fun!!!
